An amendment to the Minnesota Constitution is proposed to the people. If the amendment is adopted, article IV, section 23, will read:

Sec. 23. Every bill passed in conformity to the rules of each house and the joint rules of the two houses shall be presented to the governor. If he approves a bill, he shall sign it, deposit it in the office of the secretary of state and notify the house in which it originated of that fact. If he vetoes a bill, he shall return it with his objections to the house in which it originated. His objections shall be entered in the journal. If, after reconsideration, two-thirds of that house agree to pass the bill, it shall be sent, together with the governor's objections, to the other house, which shall likewise reconsider it. If approved by two-thirds of that house it becomes a law and shall be deposited in the office of the secretary of state. In such cases the votes of both houses shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the names of the persons voting for or against the bill shall be entered in the journal of each house. Any bill not returned by the governor within three days (Sundays excepted) after it is presented to him becomes a law as if he had signed it, unless the legislature by adjournment within that time prevents its return. Any bill passed during the last three days of a session may be presented to the governor during the three days following the day of final adjournment and becomes law if the governor signs and deposits it in the office of the secretary of state within 14 days after the adjournment of the legislature. Any bill passed during the last three days of the session which is not signed 2.1 and deposited within 14 days after adjournment does not become a law. 2.2 If a bill presented to the governor contains several items of appropriation of money, 2.3 he may veto one or more of the items while approving the bill. At the time he signs the 2.4 bill the governor shall append to it a statement of the items he vetoes and the vetoed 2.5 items shall not take effect. If the legislature is in session, he shall transmit to the house in 2.6 which the bill originated a copy of the statement, and the items vetoed shall be separately 2.7 reconsidered. If on reconsideration any item is approved by two-thirds of the members 2.8 elected to each house, it is a part of the law notwithstanding the objections of the governor. 2.9 Sec. 2. SUBMISSION TO VOTERS. 2.10 The proposed amendment must be submitted to the people at the 2010 general 2.11 election. The question submitted must be: 2.12 "Shall the Minnesota Constitution be amended to eliminate the power of the 2.13 governor to veto items of appropriation while approving the remainder of a bill? 2.14 Yes 2.15
